

Are solar panels free?

When companies advertise "free solar panels" or "no-cost solar programs," they're often referring to solar leases or solar PPAs. Under these solar financing arrangements, a solar company will put a solar panel system on your roof at no up-front cost for installation, enrollment, or maintenance. This sounds great.

Can you get free solar panels on a roof?

Companies offered to pay to lease your roof from you for 20-25 years and, in exchange, would install and maintain solar PV panels on it. You didn't have to pay upfront for the panels, and would also benefit from the free electricity produced by the system. But there are very few free solar panel schemes available now.

Do I need legal advice if I have free solar panels?

We recommend that you get independent legal advice on the details of the contract, whether you have free solar panels or are considering solar buyback. You should consider who owns the system; what happens if you want to end the contract early; who is liable for damage; who pays for insurance, upkeep and repairs; and what happens if you move.

Do you have to pay for solar panels?

Expect to pay for them later on. Companies offering "free" solar panels may require you to sign a solar panel lease or power purchase agreement (PPA). Tax credits and other incentives can reduce the upfront costs of going solar without committing you to unfavorable terms -- just make sure they're legitimate.
