

Since 2020, Envirolife Kenya has been a powerful voice for a sustainable Kenya, empowering communities, advocating for change, and working tirelessly to protect our environment.

The Kenya Country Environmental Analysis (CEA) presents recent findings and trends on key environmental challenges and opportunities.

Kenya's corporate ESG landscape is evolving, but gaps remain between self-reported sustainability commitments and verifiable impact, with challenges in water, plastic recovery, supply ...

The UN and its partners in Kenya are working towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals: 17 interconnected and ambitious goals which address the major development challenges faced by...

Kenya's land area of 582,646 Km<sup>2</sup> is endowed with fascinating environmental landscapes and diverse natural capital assets comprising flora, fauna, water, and minerals. These country's natural assets ...

Dr Barasa highlighted that since the adoption of Kenya's National Environment Policy in 2013, the country's environmental governance landscape has changed significantly.

By continuing to champion bold, locally grounded, and globally aligned strategies, Kenya not only shapes East Africa's climate future but also contributes to a more sustainable and equitable ...

EcoNews, powered by TechTrends Media Ltd, is the leading platform for environmental and sustainability news in Africa. We provide in-depth coverage of climate change, green energy, the ...

Increasingly, development finance in Kenya is aligning with global best practice in ESG integration, sustainability risk management and green finance mobilisation.

Web: <https://scmindustries.co.za>