

Definition of high adjective in Oxford Advanced American Dictionary. Meaning, pronunciation, picture, example sentences, grammar, usage notes, synonyms and more.

The primary objective was to evaluate the electric generation performance of the individual unit structure under varying air speeds and to assess the overall wind barrier energy harvesting ...

If something is high, it is a long way above the ground, above sea level, or above a person or thing. I looked down from the high window. The bridge was high, jacked up on wooden piers. ...

High definition: Far or farther from a reference point.

Built on CRRC's mature high-speed rail technology and extensive rail experience and supported by the most comprehensive wind power equipment industrial chain, this turbine leads in ...

The high-speed rail standing upright: "Offshore giant" embarks on a new journey in wind power When a #highspeedtrain roars past you, have you ever thought that one day it would "stand upright" in the deep sea?

high implies marked extension upward and is applied chiefly to things which rise from a base or foundation or are placed at a conspicuous height above a lower level.

Greer High is located in its present facility that was completed in 1998. The school is situated on 105 acres of land in a rural setting north of Greer.

Three upwind designs and two downwind designs are presented, combining different design goals together with conventional glass and pultruded carbon fiber laminates in the spar caps. One of the ...

Unlike solar and wind, our technology works around the clock. High energy output at low costs. Reduces CO2 emissions significantly. Join us and be part of the energy revolution.

This is not a fantasy, but a Chinese engineering miracle that is happening. It is the "Qihang" 20MW floating offshore wind turbine generator, dubbed "the high-speed rail standing upright..."

High (adjective, informal): Intoxicated by drugs or alcohol. The word "high" is a versatile term with multiple meanings and applications, spanning physical elevation, emotional ...

It's two and a half metres high and one metre wide. The corn grew waist-high (= as high as a person's waist) in the fields. high The garden is surrounded by a high wall. tall Mount Everest ...

In this paper, an energy harvesting wind barrier (EHWB) based on coaxial contrarotation is designed to reduce crosswinds and generate electricity for self-powered applications on railways.

The utility model relates to a power generation railing for a bridge, which comprises a hand cross rod, two upright posts and a new energy power supply module, wherein two ends of the hand...

China has successfully completed the first flight of its home-designed floating wind turbine, the S1500, in Hami, Xinjiang. The system passed strict tests, including full desert assembly ...

Web: <https://scmindustries.co.za>