

The 2026 EPR Recognition Program was co-organized by the DENR, through its Environmental Management Bureau, and the Philippine Alliance for Recycling and Material ...

in a wide range of industries and activities relevant to the environment. According to WWF-Philippines (2020, p.5) "[s]pecifically, but not exclusively, this includes jobs that help protect ecosystems and ...

The Philippines generates some 2.7 million tonnes of plastic waste annually and 20% of that goes to the ocean, according to the World Bank. "Sachet economy" and "high dependence" on ...

Waste management laws in the Philippines admittedly face significant challenges, rendering them to a larger extent, ineffective. Environmental conservation groups strongly oppose incineration due to ...

By optimising resource use, minimising waste, and fostering innovation, the circular economy offers a sustainable pathway for the Philippines to achieve ecological integrity, economic growth, and social ...

Enter Plastic Flamingo, a social enterprise dedicated to recycling and upcycling plastic waste into valuable resources while transforming lives and promoting sustainability. In the Philippines, plastic ...

Discover how smart recycling systems are revolutionizing waste management in the Philippines and Southeast Asia through data, rewards, and digital tools.

In the Philippines, the principles of environmental sustainability and scientific recycling are deeply integrated into the Solid Waste Management (SWM) programs implemented by Local ...

The program introduces specially designed bins in public spaces, starting with Barangay Halls. Moreover, it highlights SBS Philippines Corporation's dedication to Corporate Social ...

The RDC, or Recyclable, Disposable and Compostable bins at SM Supermalls, are not only for show but serve as the start of the journey to achieve a net-zero landfill and beyond.

Web: <https://scmindustries.co.za>